

AIA presents Design and Honor Awards

American Institute Of Architects Florida Southwest Chapter presents Design And Honor Awards For 2019

The AIA's local chapter presented its Design and Honor Awards for 2019 at a event held at the Sidney & Berne Davis Art Center in Fort Myers on Nov. 14. Twelve Design and Six Honor Awards were bestowed prior to the guest presentation by Alan Schulman, AIA, founder of Miami-based Shulman & Associates.

Honor Awards presented were:

- Firm of the Year
BSSW Architects, Inc.
- Contractor of the Year
Envirostruct, LLC
- Allied Member of the Year
TLC Engineering Solutions
- Associate of the Year
Natali Garcia, Associate AIA
- President's Award
Dr. Tyler F. Patak, AIA
- Frizzell Medal of Honor
Dr. Tyler F. Patak, AIA

Design Awards presented were:

New Work - Commercial

- Honor Award
Corban Architects, LLC for Celebration Park
- Merit Award
Corban Architects, LLC for Grace Place for Children and Families

New Work - Residential

- Honor Award
David Poorman Architect, LLC for Hacienda Gomez

New Residential

- Merit Award
HLevel for Courtyard Residence

The American Institute of Architects Florida Southwest Chapter presented Design and Honor Awards at a ceremony November in Fort Myers.

Interior Architecture

- Honor Award
Architecture Joyce Owens for Villa Captiva

Interior Architecture

- Merit Award
RG Architects, PA for Shell Point Crystal Dining

Additions and Restorations

- Honor Award
Architecture Joyce Owens for Captiva Peace
- Merit Award
HLevel for Ankrolab Brewing

Unbuilt

- Honor Award
HLevel for Chesapeake Townhouses

Interior Architecture

- Merit Award
RG Architects, PA for Heights Foundation Charter School

Test of Time

- Honor Award
Dwight Oakley, AIA for Soderberg Residence
- Merit Award
Victor Latavish Architect, PA for Iona Hope Episcopal Church